

COBWEB HEAD

sweeping up the cobwebs and dusting out your mind creeping through the shadows and the thoughts you left behind i'm foggy in the morning i'm foggier at night
i'm clinging to a memory so ripped and torn it's almost out of sight it's almost out of sight it's long since died so get some sleep tonight

love swept you away
love crept into your brain lust and the fires of hell
love and the funeral bell here lye my broken bones of love remembering the feeling remembering the lie remembering the night you couldn't look me in the eye i'm hanging from the ceiling i'm dripping from the sky i'm strung up here believing as you dance around the fire i watch you dance the flames grow higher goodbye to romance

a funeral pyre
